SOURCE Borba.HUNGARIAN COAL MINERS, FARMERS ARRESTED

Novi Sad, 5 October -- According to reports from Budapest, 400 coal miners from various coal mines in Hungary were arrested because they rebelled against the cancelation of their supplementary allowance of fats, which they are supposed to receive for working in the mines.

It is rumored that frequent train wrecks due to sabotage have been occurring recently in Szekesfehervar, Iled, Lajosmizse, Djera, and Salgotarjan.

Ten days ago the farmers in Sarbogard rebelled because of terrorism in the carrying out of the crop purchase plan. A company of soldiers was sent from Budapest to establish order.

Workers are extremely dissatisfied, especially in Gsepel. It was said that bread would be offered at free sale, but there is often no bread available even for ration cards. Long waiting lines for meat begin forming at 0200 and 0300 hours. The same is true for potatoes, which are poor in quality; only 2 to 3 kilograms are issued [at a time?]. Lard and bacon on farm markets have increased about 100 to 120 forints per kilogram.
